

THE ROCKET

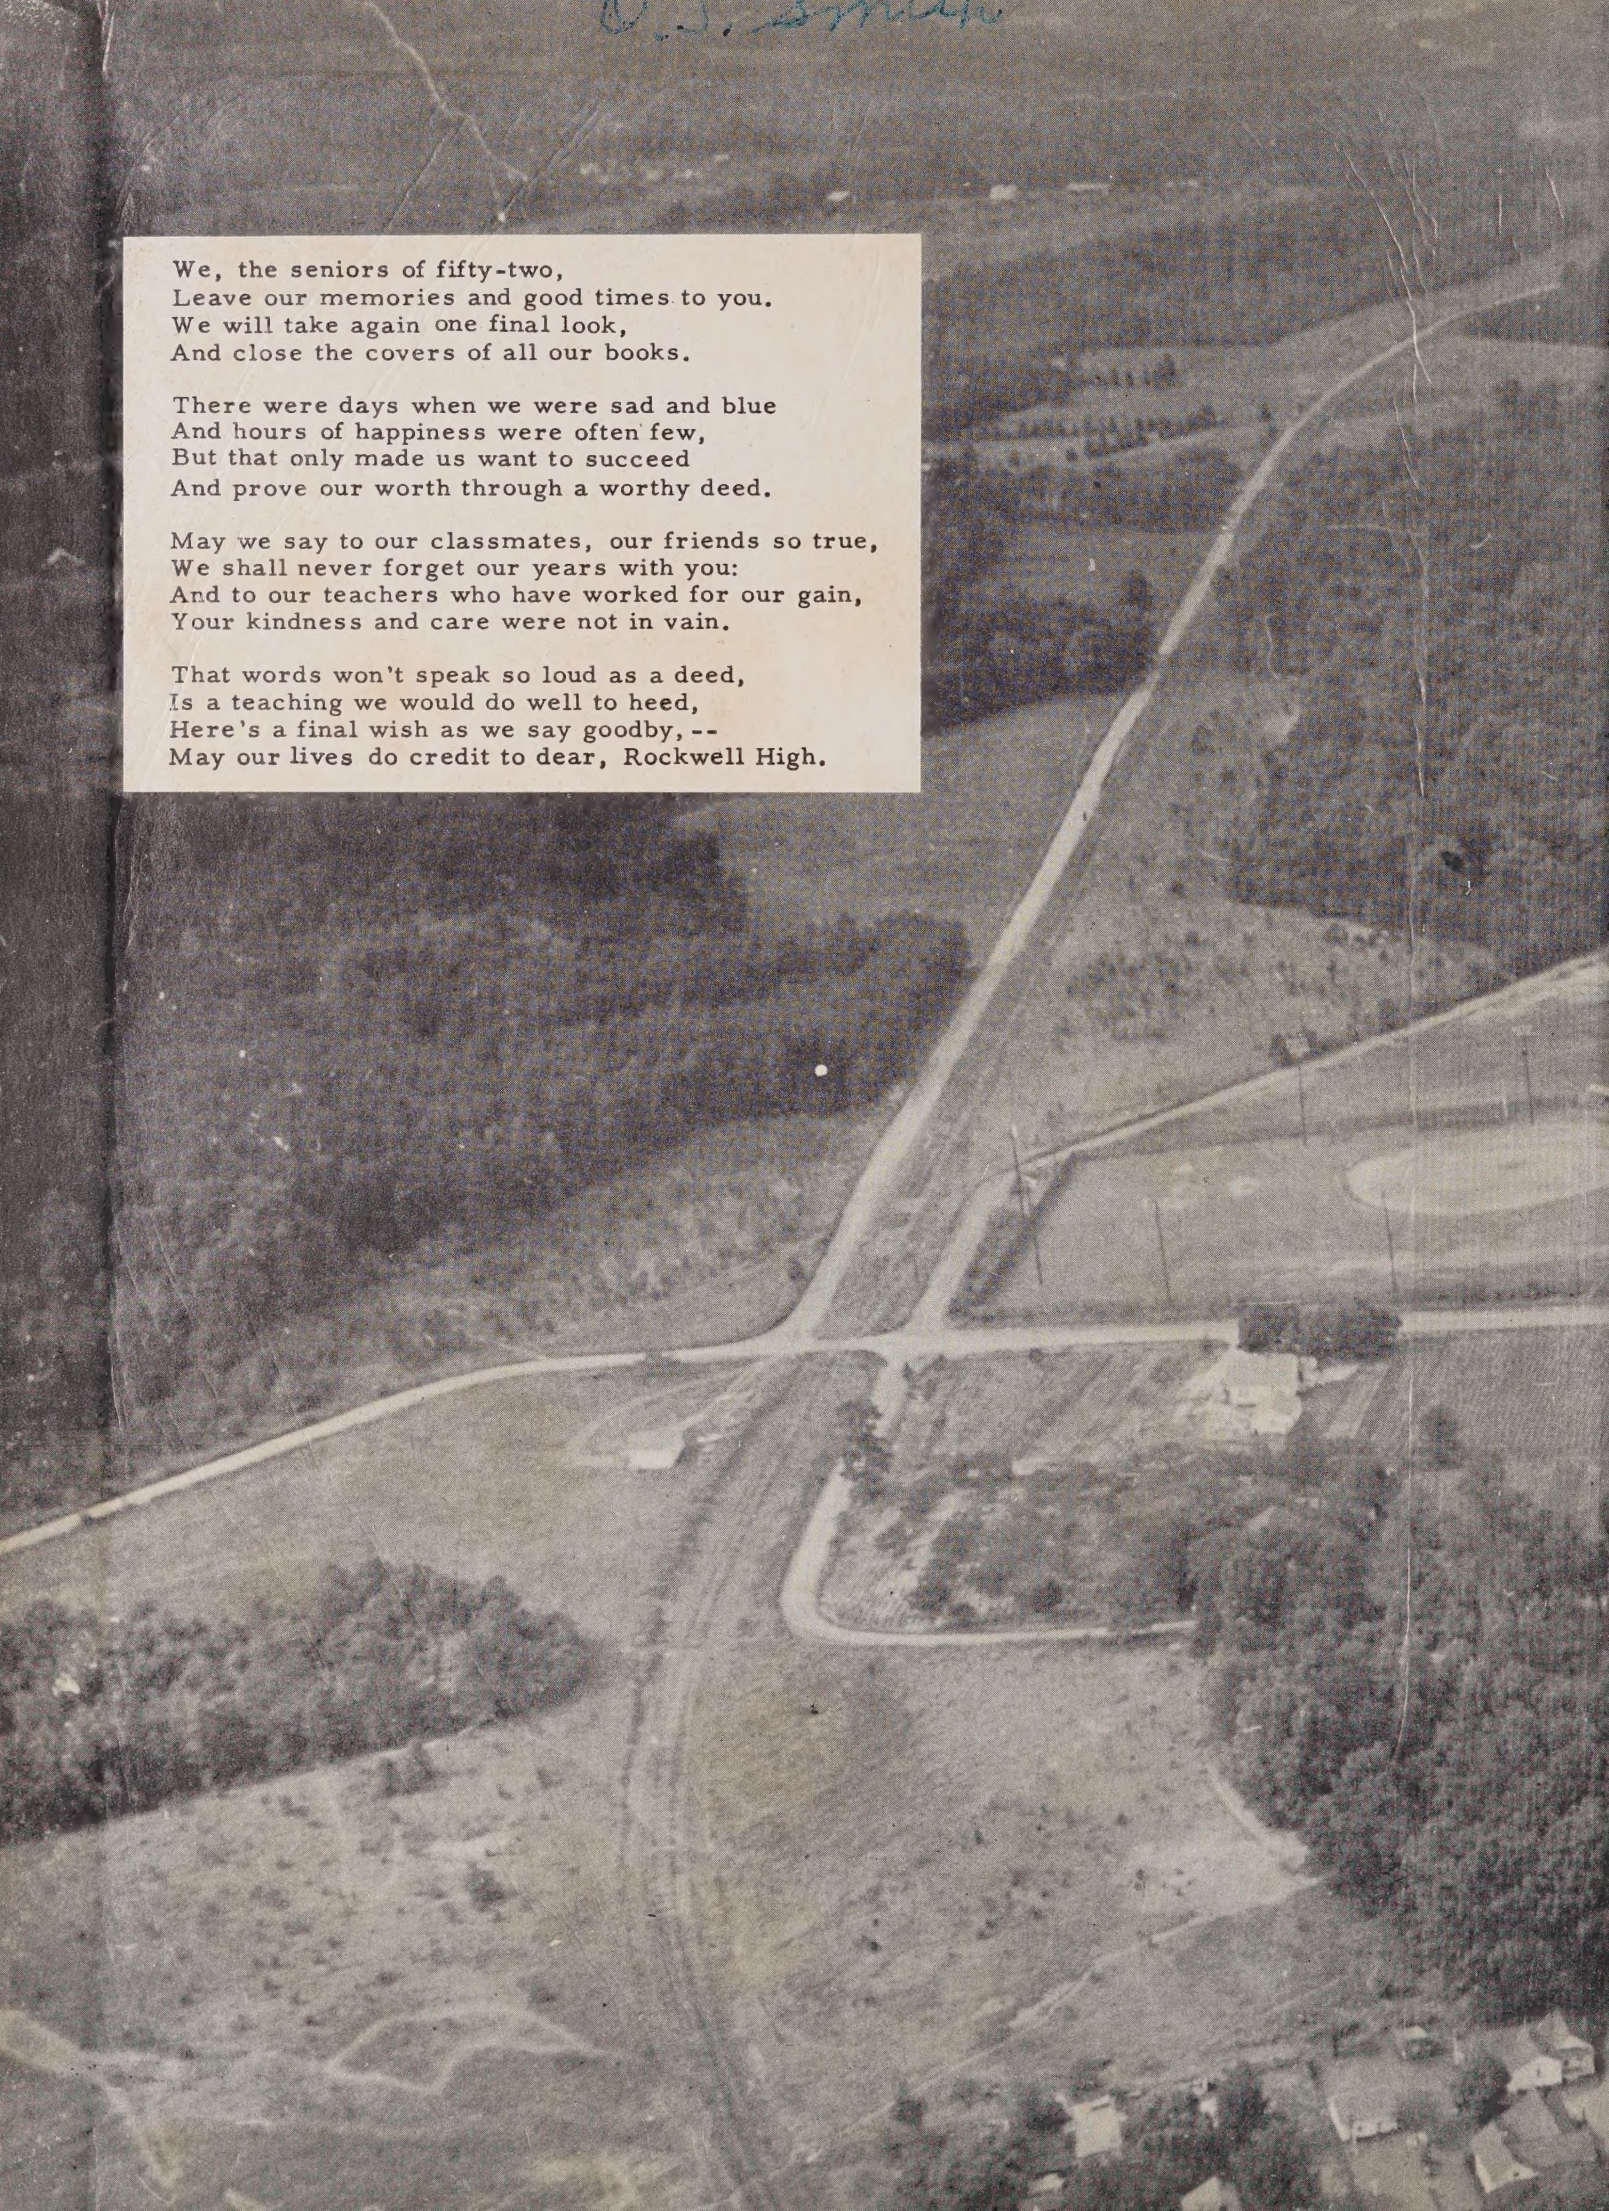

1952

We, the seniors of fifty-two,
Leave our memories and good times to you.
We will take again one final look,
And close the covers of all our books.

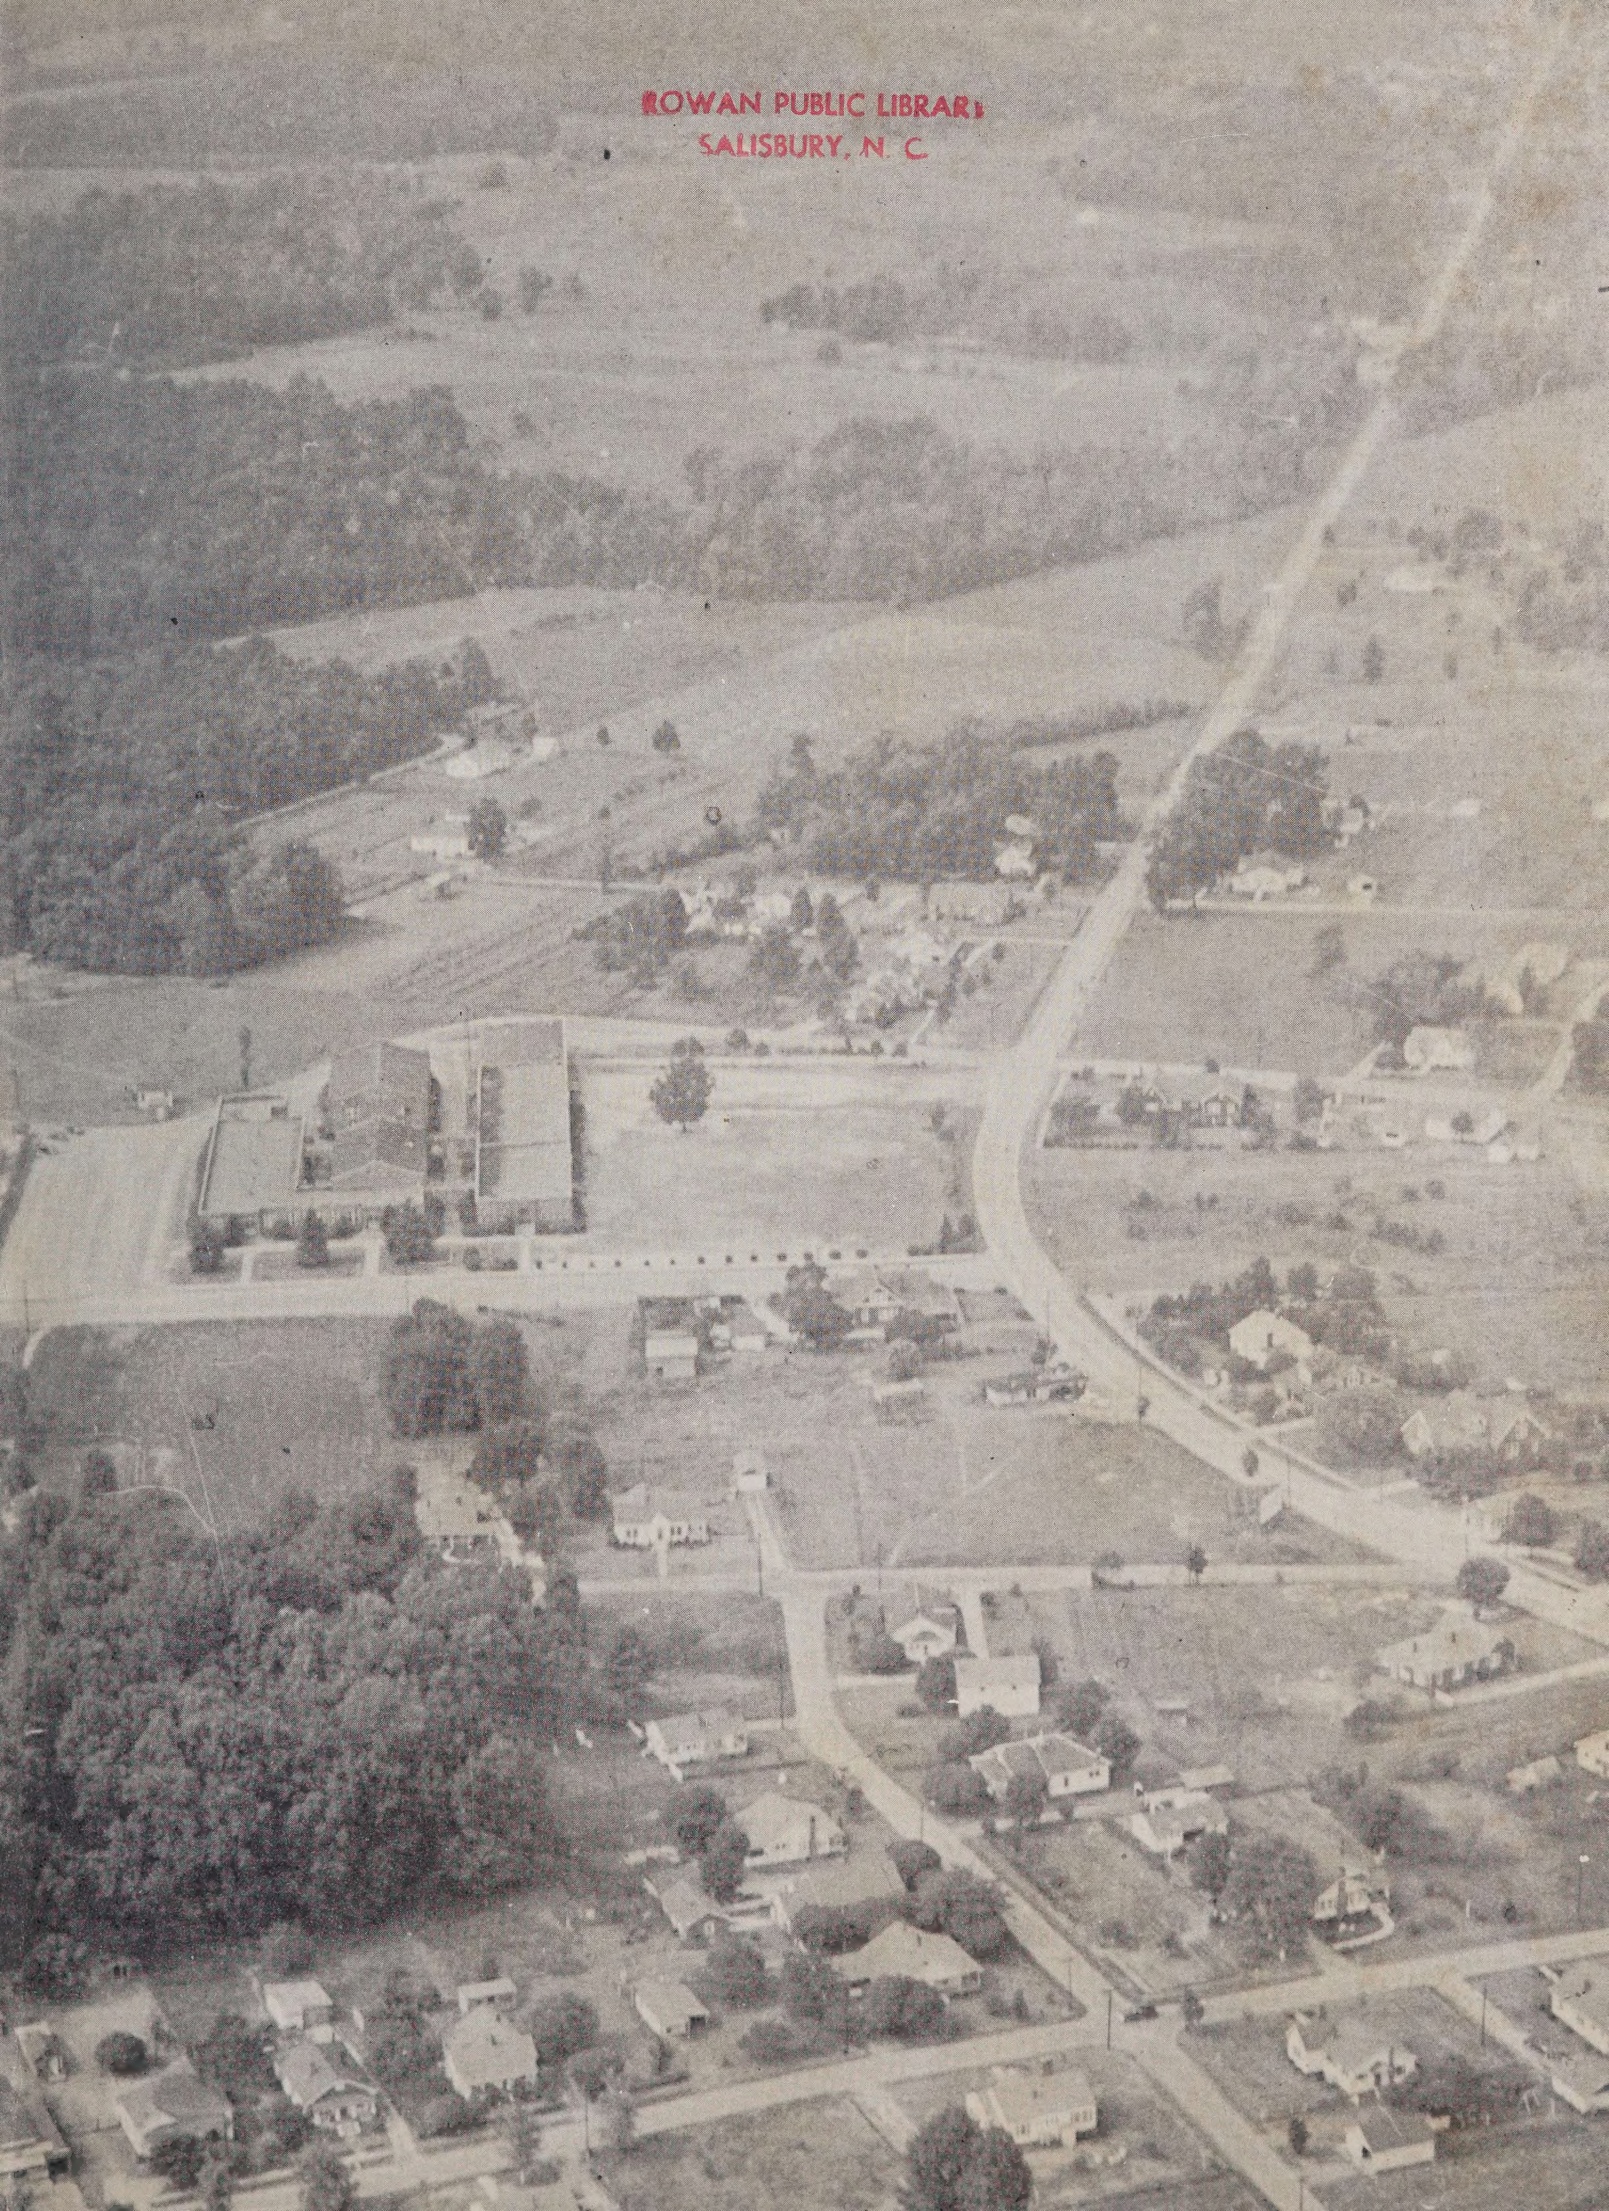

There were days when we were sad and blue
And hours of happiness were often few,
But that only made us want to succeed
And prove our worth through a worthy deed.

May we say to our classmates, our friends so true,
We shall never forget our years with you:
And to our teachers who have worked for our gain,
Your kindness and care were not in vain.

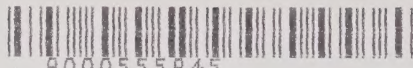

That words won't speak so loud as a deed,
Is a teaching we would do well to heed,
Here's a final wish as we say goodbye, --
May our lives do credit to dear, Rockwell High.

CLASS HISTORY

In the fall of 1948 we entered high school. Our home room teacher, Miss Davis and Mrs. Puckett, enrolled sixty-one Freshmen, a smaller class than usual. We elected as class officers Sue Ritchie, President; Martha Holshouser, Vice-President; Marvin Misenheimer, Secretary; and Geneva File, Treasure. Like most Freshman classes, this first year followed the usual routine.

A year later we entered school again, this time as Sophomores. Our number had decreased until there were only about forty-six on roll. Mrs. Hunt and Mr. Gilkerson were our sponsors. Our class officers were as follows: Sue Ritchie, President; Hayden Earnhardt, Vice-President; Margaret Shue, Secretary; and Mike Conry, Treasure. Ten girls were chosen by the Junior class to serve as waitresses at the Junior-Senior banquet. This was a great thrill for the ones who were chosen.

Another year rolled around and then we could say we were Juniors. It made us happy to think that we had only one more year in high school. A few more of our classmates dropped out leaving us with only about forty-four Juniors. Our class officers were Bobby Fesperman, President; Minnie Rattz, Vice-President; Ruth Hooks, Secretary; and Hayden Earnhardt, Treasurer. We began working under the direction of Mrs. Bost and Mrs. Johnson to raise money for the Junior-Senior banquet. We enjoyed giving the play which was entitled "Let Me Out Of Here". We also had a good time getting up the Talent Show. Then came the banquet, it required lots of work but everyone was willing to help.

Now in the year 1951 we have come to our Senior year. With several of our members dropping out and few new ones coming in we have an enrollment of forty-three. With the help of Mrs. Puckett and Mrs. Hunt, our sponsors, we selected our class officers: Mike Conry, President; Hayden Earnhardt, Vice-President; Sue Ritchie, Secretary; and Martha Holshouser, Treasure. Everyone enjoyed presenting the play entitled "Hobgoblin House". We are still looking forward to the Junior Senior banquet which will be one of the big events this year. Most of all, however, we are looking forward to Commencement, the time for which we have waited and worked many years.

We wish to thank all those who have shared our joys and sorrows and have helped us along the way. We also hope the future will be very bright for each Senior graduating with the class of 1952.

STEVIE WILLIAMS, Janitor

In the four years that Mr. Puckett has been at Rockwell, we have seen many improvements. Under his direction, a new section, which houses the cafeteria and three additional classrooms was added to the elementary building. Our film library has been enlarged so we can enjoy one of the largest in the county. Play ground space has been increased and provided with the latest in equipment. Attractive and restful lounges have been added for the students. All streets around the school grounds have been paved.

To our Principal, we say "thanks" for a better Rockwell school!

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1952, being certain of sound and sane mind, hereby make this our Last Will and Testament.

ARTICLE 1: Having acquired more talents than we could use, we do let fall these talents on the shoulders of the worthy underclassmen.

James Alexander wills Bus No. 33 to anyone who can stand the noise and the people that ride it. Ruth Hooks wills her music talent to Faye Ritchie. Peggy Featherstone wills her top locker (No. 44) to Violet Eudy. Mary Eller wills her bookkeeping and shorthand books to Frances Lookabill and Johnnie Hoffner. Minnie Rattz wills her basketball ability to her sister, Frankie. Gladys Trexler wills her little feet to Nell Misenheimer (they're only size 9). Sue Ritchie wills her petite charm to Ruby Shipton and Jean McGuire. Dewey Culp wills her ability to be in the Beta Club to Lavada Gallaway. Gertrude Frick wills those sweet-smelling fish that we have in the lunch room to the lunchroom staff and to anyone else who likes to smell them. Tom Puckett wills his stilliness and "little Black Book" to "Buzz" Peeler. Junior Holshouser wills his love for girls to Bill Earnhardt. Hayden Earnhardt wills his good looks to D. C. Vanhoy. Jackie Beaver wills her ability to get out of classes to Nell Misenheimer. Norma Hill wills her front seat on No. 10 to Polly Morgan. Larry Corl wills his "short size" to "Possum Johnson". Bill Cruse wills his love for foreign girls to "Cider". Jimmie Shuping, Mary Louise Pickler and Peggy Kluttz will their corner in study hall to anyone who can occupy it as well as they did. Milburn Leonard wills his place on the baseball mound to anyone who can throw his leg over his head and fire the ball over the plate. L. T. Shuping wills his ability to getting in trouble to anyone who thinks he can keep up his average. Martha Holshouser wills her position as Art Editor of the Annual to Sue Shuping. Marvin Misenheimer wills his arm wrestling championship to James Puckett. Margaret Hinson wills her physics book to Jimmy Puckett. Kenneth Shaver wills Bus No. 24 to anyone who can stand the sound of it. Luther Matthews wills his voice to anyone who can stand the sound of it, and his football uniform to anyone who can stand the smell of it. John Bost wills his red pants to anyone who can fight the glare. Jimmy File leaves his bus and half the redheads to anyone who can handle them. Bessie Lea Doby wills Bus No. 51 to anyone who thinks they can manage those kids on it. Mike Conry wills his long legs to anyone who can't grow a set. Ruth Goodman wills her quietness to Tommy Moose. Annie Lea Lyerly wills her mobility to hunt Mr. Puckett when the telephone rings to Marlene Bost (hoping she can find him). C. D. Goodman wills his red curly hair to Harold Holder. Priscilla McGuire wills her shorthand book to Mrs. Hunt. Bobby Fesperman wills his seat at the card table upstairs to anyone who is lucky enough to win. Gregory Taylor wills Bus No. 60 to anyone who can hold the "hot rod" down. Geneva File wills her bashfulness to her sister, Naomi. Jimmy Poole and Harold Blackwelder will their seats at the table in the gym to Bobby Mooney and Harvey Holshouser if they can stand the price. Lester Brown Jr. wills the entire school to Mr. Puckett. He says he is through with it. Mary Euart wills her beloved grammar book to her brother, Calvin. Joyce Boyd wills her love for boys to Sue Odell.

ARTICLE 2: To the Juniors, we leave our senior dignity, and the right to boss underclassmen.

ARTICLE 3: To the Sophomores, we leave them to cause trouble (if they think they can get by with it).

ARTICLE 4: To the Freshmen, we leave the hopes that they will get to the top of the ladder (Honest, like we did).

ARTICLE 5: To Mr. Puckett and the faculty, we leave that mob of students and sincerely hope your patience and constant guidance will be remembered and appreciated through the years. Hereupon, we, the foresaid class of 1952 in witness thereof, do set our hand and seal.

Annie Lea Lyerly
Testator

We, the seniors of fifty-two,
Leave our memories and good times to you.
We will take again one final look,
And close the covers of all our books.

There were days when we were sad and blue
And hours of happiness were often few,
But that only made us want to succeed
And prove our worth through a worthy deed.

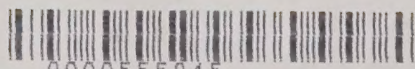

May we say to our classmates, our friends so true,
We shall never forget our years with you:
And to our teachers who have worked for our gain,
Your kindness and care were not in vain.

That words won't speak so loud as a deed,
Is a teaching we would do well to heed,
Here's a final wish as we say goodbye, --
May our lives do credit to dear, Rockwell High.
